BENWOOD CONFERENCE

Of the German Lutheran Church Occurred Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon and evening the conference of the English Lutheran church of the Wheeling district took place at Benwood, at the St. Matthew's church. The following ministers were present: Rev. Messrs. Worder, of Wheeling; Boccele, of Benwood; Well-housen, of Bridgeport; Oeverman, of Bennett, Pa.; Krauter, of Wheeling; Doepkin, of Martin's Ferry, and Braun, of Steubenville. Mr. Worder presided over the deliberations of the conference and Mr. Boccele, of Benwood, acted as secretary.

and Mr. Boecele, of Benwood, acted as secretary.

At the afternoon session of the conference considerable business in connection with the church work was considered and the discussion was quite igeneral and interesting. In the evening services were held at St. Matthew's when Rev. Mr. Doepkin, of Martin's Ferry, delivered the sermon on Lenten subjects. Lenten aubjects.

VERY PECULIAR WEATHER.

A Murky, Slippery Day-Many Falls, but Few Serious,

The air was full of weather yesterdaythick weather that could be felt. The sidewalks were also covered with ice, and they also could be felt, and were felt by many people who "took a tum-ble." The rain of early morning froze at once on the pavements, making walk-ing not only disagreeable but dangerous, but the only serious results of a fall heard of were those sustained by Harry Fisner, who fell white walking down Seventeenth street, and dislocated an
